ORDER :

The Director of Insurance Medical Services, Andhra Pradesh, Hyderabad in his letter read above has stated that Dr.V.Madhuri Devi, Civil Assistant Surgeon, ESI Hospital, Visakhapatnam presently prosecuting PG Degree course in MD (Genl. Medicine) at Andhra Medical College, Visakhapatnam and she has already studied PG Diploma in "OTORHINOLARYNGOLOGY" before entry into the Government Service. Now, the Medical Officer has prosecuting the PG Degree in MD(General Medicine) in Andhra Medical College, Visakhapatnam and requested for sanction of pay & allowances for the year 2015-18.

2. The deputation and pay and allowances are governed by G.O.Ms.No.260, HM&FW(E2) Department, dated.10.07.1997 dealing with Rules for Admission to Post Graduate Medical Courses in the Medical Colleges in the State as amended by G.O.Ms.No.279, HM&FW(E2) Department, Dated.9.7.2001 and G.O.Ms.No.719, HM&FW(E2) Department, dated.16.12.2003. The Government orders in respect ofsanction of deputation with Pay & allowances for prosecuting the P.G.Degree in respect of Medical Officers issued in G.O.Ms.No.260, HM&FW(E2) Department, Dated.10.7.1997 is as follows :

11 (xii) Deputation to in-service candidates selected under service quota shall be restricted to 3 years only i.e., (36months). The candidates selected to prosecutePostgraduate courses under in service quota shall be sanctioned deputation for not more than one course in his service or life time. The candidate selected under service quota shall be deputed only to such branches specified by concerned Director or Registrar, University of Health Sciences.

(a) As a special measure the S.T. candidates who are eligible to be considered as in-service candidates as per rule 3(2) if selected to the P.G course either under in-service seats or non-service seats on merit are eligible for deputation for not more than one course in his service or life time.

(b) In case, if a service candidate is selected under in-service quota for Diploma Course the candidate may be given deputation if the candidate is otherwise eligible for a period of 2 years. If the candidate is selected for a degree course in the same subject the candidate may be allowed deputation for another period of 12 months. But no candidate shall be allowed deputation for studying 2nd Post Graduate diploma course under service quota.

(c) In-service candidates shall join the course on or before the commencement of thecourse after getting relieved from the concerned Head of the Institution. The Heads of the Medical Institutions shall relieve them if they apply for relief enclosing a copy of the Selection and allotment order issued by the Chairman, Selection Committee.

(d) Any candidate in Government service other than the Inservice candidate as defined under rule 3(2) if selected for any Postgraduate course shall not be entitled for any kind of leave including extraordinary leave without allowances for prosecuting Post Graduate courses unless the candidate has put in a minimum service specified in rule 3(2).

The amendment issued vide G.O.Ms.No.279, HM&FW(E2)Deptt., Dt.9-7-2001 is as follows :

In rule 11 in sub-rule (xii) to clause (b), the following shall be added at the end namely :

"In case, if a service candidate who acquired Post Graduate diploma in a particular specialty either before entry into Government Service or after entry into Government Service and if he or she is selected for Post Graduate degree in the same specialty,shall be allowed deputation for another period of twelve (12) months as he or she has drawn stipend for two (2) years while doing diploma in the specialty"

Further an Amendment issue vide G.O.Ms.No.719, HM&FW(E2) Deptt., Dt.16-12-2003 are as follows :

In rule 11, for the opening para of sub-rule (xii), the following shall be substituted :-

"(xii): Deputation to in-service candidates selected under service quota shall be restricted to 3 years only, i.e., (36 months). The candidate selected to prosecute post graduate courses under in-service quota shall be sanctioned deputation for one course only in his service time. The candidate selected under in service quota shall be permitted to take any course of his/her choice based on merit."

Thus, as per the above orders vide G.O.Ms.No.260, HM&FW(E2) Department Dt.10-07-1997 as amended by G.O.Ms.No.279, HM&FW(E2) Department, Dated.9-7-2001 and G.O.Ms.No.719, HM&FW(E2) Department, dated.16-12-2003. the Rule 11 (xii) reads as follows:

11 (xii): Deputation to in-service candidates selected under service quota shall be restricted to 3 years only, i.e., (36 months). The candidate selected to prosecute post graduate courses under inservice quota shall be sanctioned deputation for one course only in his service time. The candidate selected under in service quota shall be permitted to take any course of his/her choice based on merit.".

(a) As a special measure the S.T. candidates who are eligible to be considered as inservice candidates as per rule 3(2) if selected to the P.G course either under inservice seats or non-service seats on merit are eligible for deputation for not more than onecourse in his service or life time.

(b) In case, if a service candidate is selected under inservice quota for Diploma Course the candidate may be given deputation if the candidate is otherwise eligible for a period of 2 years. If the candidate is selected for a degree course in the same subject the candidate may be allowed deputation for another period of 12 months. But no candidate shall be allowed deputation for studying 2nd Post Graduate diploma course under service quota.

"In case, if a service candidate who acquired Post Graduate diploma in a particular specialty either before entry into Government Service or after entry into Government Service and if he or she is selected fo Post Graduate degree in the same specialty, shallbe allowed deputation for another period of twelve (12) months as he or she has drawn stipend for two (2) years while doing diploma in the specialty"studying 2nd Post Graduate diploma course under service quota.

Thus, as seen from above Government orders, in case of a service candidate who acquired Post graduate diploma in a particular specialty either before entry into Government service or after entry into Government service and if he or she is selected for Post graduate Degree in course of his/her choice shall allowed deputation for another period of 12 months only.

3. Further As per the Prospsectus issued by Dr NTR University of Health Sciences, Andhra Pradesh, Vijayawada for admission to "Post Graduate Medical Degree and Diploma Courses for the academic year 2015-16 with reference to the sanction of deputation are as follows :

10.10.2 : In case, if a service candidate is selected under in-service quota for Diploma Course the candidate may be given deputation if the candidate is otherwise eligible for a period of 2 years. If a service candidate already having a PG Diploma either before entry into Government Service or after entry into Government Service is selected for a PG Degree in any specialty, he/she shall be allowed deputation for another period of 12 months only.No candidate shall be allowed deputation for studying 2nd Post Graduate Diploma course under service quota. In case, if a service candidate who acquired Post Graduate diploma in particular specialty either before entry into Government Service or after entry into Government Service and if he or she is selected for Post Graduate degree shall be allowed deputation for another period of twelve (12) months as he or she has drawn stipend for two (2) years while doing diploma.

Thus as per the above also in case if a service candidate already having P.G.diploma either before entry into Government service or after entry into Government service and if he or she is selected for Post graduate Degree in any specialty shall allowed deputation for another period of 12 months only.

4. Further Dr.V.Madhuri Devi, Civil Assistant Surgeon has given a declaration that "she possess Post Graduate Diploma in Otorhinolaryngology as non Service candidate. She is aware of the fact that she is eligible for only 12 months deputation….."

5. The above request of the individual for sanction of deputation with pay and allowances to prosecute as in-service candidate has been examined in accordance with the above said Government Orders and in consultation with Health, Medical & Family Welfare Department who are the competent authority in respect of rules/orders for sanction of deputation for P.G.Courses. The Health, Medical & Family Wefare Department have informed the rule position in respect of Dr.V.Madhuri Devi, CAS & another are as follows;

"this Department is following the rules issued in G.O.Ms.No.260 and the amendments issued subsequently vide G.O.Ms.No.279 read with 719. As seen from the said orders, in case, if a service candidate who acquired Post graduate diploma in a particular specialty either before entry into Government service or after entry into Government service and if he or she is selected for Post Graduate Degree in the same specialty, shall be allowed deputation for another period of (12) months as he or she has drawn stipend for two(2) years, while doing Diploma in the specialty. The same thing was also reiterated in the prospectus issued by Dr.NTRUHS for PG admission. When the case of both the individuals is examined vis.a.vis the existing rule position, it can be said that they are entitled for another period of 12 months only for pursuing PG degree and for the remaining period, they may be sanctioned leave as per the individual's eligibility".

6. In view of the detail examination above, it is seen that Dr.V.Madhuri Devi, Civil Assistant Surgeon is eligible for sanction of deputation with pay and allowances for a period of 12 months only, as she has drawn stipend for two (2) years while doing Diploma in the specialty and the remaining period can be considered as leave for which she is eligible.

7. Government after careful examination of the matter hereby permit the Director of Insurance Medical Services, Andhra Pradesh, Vijayawada to sanction deputation for a period of (1) year for the academic yearw.e.f 01-07-2015 with pay and allowances and for the remaining period of (2) years w.e.f 01-07-2016 as leave whichever she is eligible on study purpose to Dr.V.Madhuri Devi, Civil Assistant Surgeon for the Academic Year 2015-2018 to prosecute her P.G.Degree Course in M.D.(General Medicine) at Andhra Medical College, Visakhapatnam as in-service candidate as per G.O.Ms.NO.260, HM&FW(E2) Department, Dated:10-07-1997 read with G.O.Ms.No.279, HM&FW (E2) Department, Dated:09-07-2001 & vide G.O.Ms.No.719, HM&FW(E2) Department, Dated:16-12-2003.

8. The period of absence of the Medical Officer during study of her P.G.Course shall be treated as on duty under F.R.9(6)(b).
